George S. Phillips

SOMERSET, Mass. — George S. Phillips, 66, of 356 Hillside Ave., a brakeman for the former New Haven Railroad, later Conrail, for 36 years before retiring in 1978, died yesterday at St. Anne's Hospital. He was the husband of Lorraine H. (Ashley) Phillips.

Born in Fall River, a son of the late George and Amanda (Boulay) Phillips, he lived in Fall River until 1950 when he moved to Somerset.

Mr. Phillips was a communicant of St. Thomas More Church. He was a member of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, Lodge 66, the Touisset Golf Association, the Touisset Country Club, and the Fall River Elks.

Besides his wife he leaves two daughters, Helen P. Grantham of Liverpool, N.Y., Doris A. Petty of Somerset, and three grandchildren.

The funeral will be held Tuesday at 9 a.m. from the Rose E. Sullivan Funeral Home, 866 County St., with a funeral Mass at St. Thomas More Church, Luther Avenue, at 10. Burial will be in Notre Dame Cemetery, Fall River.
