

RAYMOND B. REGO

Raymond B. Rego, 56, of 13 Roosevelt St., husband of Susan (Padula) Rego, died yesterday afternoon in Morton Hospital after he sustained a heart attack while working out at the YMCA.

Born in Taunton, he was the son of the late Louis and Theresa (Lima) Rego. He was a member of Union Hall 653 of Brockton and was a truck driver for various heavy construction companies.

He was a World War Two veteran having served with the U.S. Navy for four years. He served in the Asiatic-Pacific theater, and in China.

He was a communicant of Our Lady of Lourdes Church.

Besides his wife, he leaves a son, Richard R. Rego of Taunton; a daughter, Darlene A. Crossman of Taunton; three brothers, Louis B. Rego and Joseph B. Rego, both of Taunton, and Francis B. Rego of Lincoln, N.H.; a sister, Mrs. Francis (Elsie) Ferrie of St. Petersburg, Fla.; two grandchildren, Carolyn Crossman and Aaron Rego, both of Taunton; and several nieces and nephews.
