FREETOWN — Andrew E. Riley, 58, of 86 Middleboro Road died today after a long illness. He was the husband of Adeline T. (David) Riley.

He was born in Fall River and lived in New Bedford for many years before moving to East Freetown eight years ago. He was a communicant of Our Lady of Purgatory Church. He was employed by Union Street Railway for 25 years as a bus driver, retiring in 1970.

Mr. Riley served in the Army during World War II, was a member of the American Legion, Moby Dick Post, No. 459, and of the American-Lebanese Veterans Association.

Survivors include his widow; two daughters, Ann C. Ramia and Eileen V. Dehar, both of New Bedford; his father, Manuel Cabral of North Dartmouth; two sisters, Catherine Andrews of Mattapoisett and Jenney Espinola of New Bedford; three brothers, Manuel Cabral Jr. and Lawrence Cabral, both of New Bedford, and Joseph Cabral of Florida; and four grandchildren.

Arrangements are by the Daniel F. Dwyer Funeral Home, 127 Chestnut St., New Bedford.
