CHARLES A. ROSE

A funeral service was held Saturday for Charles A. Rose, 86, of 508 Ivanhoe Way, Casselberry, Fla., a Taunton native who died last Wednesday in Casselberry after a brief illness. He was the husband of Mary (Slocar) Rose.

A Florida resident for the past six years, he had been employed as a driver in the area trucking industry.

In addition to his wife, he leaves two daughters, Mrs. Martha Kijak of Casselberry, and Mrs. Pearl St. Martin of Taunton; three sisters, Mrs. Agnes Gonsalves, Mrs. Evelyn Berger and Mrs. Izora Frates, all of Taunton; and eight grandchildren.

A memorial service was held at Baldwin Funeral Home of Altamonte Springs, and interment followed at All Faiths Memorial Park of Casselberry.
