

FREDERICK ROSE

Frederick Rose, 70, of 29 Pratt St., husband of the late Arleita (Sampson) Rose, died Monday at Brigham and Women's Hospital in Boston, following a short illness.

He was employed as a heavy equipment operator and through the years worked for McCabe Sand and Gravel Co. and the former Thomas Brothers Construction Co. He retired eight years ago from the Taunton Street Department.

He was a communicant of Our Lady of Lourdes Church, and a member of Taunton Lodge of Elks No. 150.

Born in Taunton, he was the son of the late Martin and Frances (Silva) Rose.

Survivors include two brothers, Thomas Rose of Taunton and Joseph Rose of Croton-on-Hudson, N.Y.; a sister, Josephine R. Enos of Taunton; and several nephews and nieces.

FLORIDA RAMOS

Florida Eva (Madore) Ramos of 11 Pond St., Norton died Tuesday at her home, following a long illness. Wife of Francis I. Ramos, she was 58.

She was an electronics assembler at Raytheon Co. for 20 years until her retirement due to illness last May. She had most recently worked at Raytheon's Norwood plant, and previously in North Dighton.

She was a member of International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, Local 1505, in Waltham.

A resident of Norton since 1973, she had previously resided in Fall River and Westport. She was a graduate of B.M.C. Durfee High School in Fall River.

She was born in Fall River, daughter of the late Pierre and Eva (Robidoux) Madore.

In addition to her husband, she leaves a stepdaughter, Julianna Ramos of Torrance, Calif.; two brothers, Roland Madore of Jewett City, Conn. and Edmond Madore of Fall River; a sister, Mrs. Alice E. Brown of Somerset; and several nephews and nieces.

Obituaries

MANUEL PAVAO

FALL River — Manuel J. Pavao, 70, of 697 Main St., Dighton, died today at Charlton Memorial Hospital here. He was the husband of Mary (Costa) Pavao.

A resident of Dighton for 43 years, he had been a custodian at Dighton-Rehoboth Regional High School from its opening until his retirement 10 years ago.

He was a member of St. Peter's Church in Dighton, the St. Vincent de Paul Society, the Holy Name Society, the Dighton Fire Association, the Farmers' Market Association, and the Dighton Senior Citizens Club.

Born in Westport, he was the son of the late Manuel J. and Helen (Medeiros) Pavao.

Besides his widow, he leaves a daughter, Mrs. James (Kathleen) Amaral of Rehoboth; three brothers, Joseph Pavao of Dighton and Louis Pavao and Victor Pavao, both of Somerset; six sisters, Mary Medeiros and Melvina Medeiros, both of Swansea, Marie Souza, Emma Cordeiro, and Martha Mello, all of Somerset, and Ida Moniz of California; two grandsons; and several nephews and nieces.

JOSEPHINES FURTADO

WAREHAM — Josephine S. (Honey) Furtado, 55, of 39 Gordon St., formerly of Taunton, died Tuesday at Tobey Hospital here, after a lengthy illness.

She was employed by the

Raytheon Company in Watertown for 25 years until her retirement due to illness five years ago.

Born in Taunton, where she resided for 20 years, she had lived in Wareham for the past 35 years. She attended Berkely grammar schools and was a graduate of Dighton High School.

She is survived by her parents, Frank and Madeline (Silva) Furtado of Wareham.

ANTONE ROSE

Antone Francis Rose, 94, of 2739 Elm St., Dighton died Thursday at his home, following a long illness. He was the husband of the late Mary R. (Rose) Rose.

A carpenter, he was employed by various construction companies in the area. He was a member of Carpenters' Union Local 1305 of Fall River.

He had resided in Dighton since 1916, and was a communicant of St. Peter's Church of Dighton.

Born in Rehoboth, he was the son of the late Antone F. and Flora (Medeiros) Rose.

Surviving are six daughters, Mrs. Audwert L. (Alice) Munday and Mrs. George (Madeline) Byers, both of Tacoma, Wash., Mrs. Robert (Virginia) Parham of Crete, Neb., Mrs. Harold J. (Mildred) Greblo-Ekstrom of Sepulveda, Calif., and Mrs. Daniel (Florence) Ferrie and Mrs. Antone (Lorraine) Mendes, both of Dighton.

Also, two brothers, Manuel Rose of Rehoboth and Francis Rose of Buzzards Bay; 29 grandchildren; 49 great-grandchildren; and several nephews and nieces.