

8/26/80

FREDRICK ROSE

DIGHTON — Retired maintenance man Fredrick Rose, 83, of 366 Hart St., died Monday night at Morton Hospital, Taunton, following a long illness.

He had retired from the Carl Gordon Garage of Dighton. He served as a private in both World War One with the Corps of Engineers and in World War Two with the Coast Artillery, 11th Co., and was a disabled veteran.

Born in Dighton, he was the son of the late Joseph and Faustina (Ferguson) Rose and was a life long resident of the town.

Survivors include three brothers, Richard Rose of Berkley, Carl Tavares of Florida, Harold Rose of Dighton; five sisters, Mrs. David (Eunice) Watkins of Southboro, Mrs. William (Elsie) Rennie of Neptune City, N.J., Mrs. Ernest (Helen) Atwood of Dighton, Mrs. Roy (May) Gilman of Upton, Mrs. Lloyd (Hester) Wheeler of Holliston, and numerous nieces and nephews.