

12/29/80
NORMAN E. ROSE

Norman E. Rose of 1535 Smith St., North Dighton, the husband of Elaine E. (Horton) Rose, died suddenly Sunday morning at Morton Hospital. He was 55.

Self-employed at H & R Garage on Winthrop Street for 25 years until his retirement in 1975, he was born in Dighton, a son of Georginna (Mattoes) Rose and the late Joseph F. Rose.

He was a World War Two veteran in the First Calvary Division of the U.S. Army and a member of the West Dighton Congregational Church.

Survivors, besides his wife and mother, include a son, Raymond E. Rose, and a daughter, Cynthia A. Swain, both of Dighton; five brothers, John M. and Ralph E. of Rhode Island, Joseph Jr. of Dighton, and Francis L. and Anthony G. of Taunton; two sisters, Hilda DeMedeiros of Taunton and Mrs. Lorenzo (Eva) Merrill of Dighton; many nieces and nephews and one grandchild.