

Mary T. Rua

2/15/81

FALL RIVER — Mary Theresa (Bretanho) Rua, 71, of 116 Lewis Ave. died Friday at St. Anne's Hospital. She was the widow of Manuel S. Rua.

She was born in Maia, St. Michael, Azores, lived in Fall River 49 years and for the last 22 years lived in Somerset. She was a communicant of St. John of God Church, Somerset. She worked for the former Lamport's Manufacturing Co. as a cloth inspector until her retirement.

Survivors include two sons, Daniel of Fall River and John S. of Somerset; three daughters, Nora Gonsalves of Somerset, Evelyn Moniz of Swansea and Rita Santos of Portsmouth; four sisters, Olive Cabral, Alexandrina Bretanho and Alice Bretanho, all of Fall River, and Hilda Enos of Manchester, Conn.; 11 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Arrangements are by the Oliveira

Antone Soares

Antone Soares, 67, of 36 Morris St., New Bedford, died yesterday unexpectedly at Union Hospital. He was the husband of Antonia (Mello) Soares.

He was a lifelong New Bedford resident and a member of the First Church of the Nazarene. He worked for the Chamberlain Manufacturing Corp. as a die setter until his retirement. He served in the Army during World War II and was a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Andrew-Dahill Post, No. 1531, of New Bedford.

Survivors include his widow; three brothers, Honbus and Larry, both of Fairhaven, Norman of Mattapoisett, and a sister, Edna Avila of Fairhaven.

Arrangements are by the Boulevard Funeral Home, 233 Ashley Blvd., New Bedford.