

9/17/82 TG

AGNELO SILVA

Agnelo (Correia) Silva, 82, of 542 Richmond St., East Taunton, died Thursday at his home, following a short illness. He was the husband of the late Mary (Farias) Silva.

A landscape gardener, he had resided in Taunton since 1950, when he moved here from Newport, R.I. He had formerly been employed as a gardener at the Gray Craig Estate in Newport.

More recently, he was employed as a gardener at the N. Louis Stone Estate in Taunton, and he operated the Silva Nursery on South St., East Taunton.

He was a communicant of St. Anthony's Church and a member of the Portuguese-American Civic Club and the Holy Ghost Society of Newport.

Son of the late John C. and Sarah (Couto) Silva, he was born at St. Michael's, Azores.

Survivors include a son, Gerard C. Silva of Raynham; a daughter, Mrs. Ronald (Florence) Rose of East Taunton, with whom he resided; two sisters, Mrs. Manuel (Georgianna) Mathias and Mrs. Frank (Emily) Silva, both of Providence, R.I.; six grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

MARIA NUNES

NORTH PROVIDENCE — Maria C. (Costa) Nunes, 79, of 18 School St., Cumberland, died Thursday at Our Lady of Fatima Hospital following a short illness. She was the wife of Manuel Nunes.

She had worked as a winder for the former Sidney Blumenthal Co., of Cumberland for 30 years, retiring in 1964. She was a communicant of Our Lady of Fatima Church, Cumberland, and a member of the Club Juventud Luzitania.

Born in Mizarela, Portugal, she was a daughter of the late Julio and Maria (Marques) Costa and had settled in Cumberland in 1916.

Survivors include her husband, a son, Edilio of Taunton, Mass.; two daughters, Mrs. Adelia Jacinto and Mrs. Elvira Silva, both of Cumberland; three brothers, Joseph and Serafim Costa of Cumberland, Aries Costa of Pawtucket; 11 grandchildren; 11 great grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.