JOSEPH G. SILVA

Joseph G. Silva, 80, of 12 Dexter Ave., and formerly of 14 Talbot Ave., died this morning at Morton Hospital, following a seven-week illness.

He was the husband of Helen (Baptista) Silva, and son of the late Manuel G. and Mary B. (Teles) Silva.

Born in Gloucester, he worked for 26 years as a stove mounter for the former Leonard Baker Stove Company. He also worked as a machine operator for S.W. Card Company of Mansfield, and for the National Biscuit Company of Mansfield.

He was last employed as sexton of Our Lady of Lourdes Church, where he was a communicant, and a member of the OLOL Holy Name Society.

He is survived by his wife Helen, one son, James G. Silva of Taunton, one brother, John D. Silva of Wareham, one sister, Mrs. Louis (Celeste) Feller of Portsmouth R.I., and several nieces and nephews.
