

10/3/80

JOAQUIM C. SILVA

BRISTOL R.I. - Joaquim C. Silva, 73, of 341 State St., a retired Hasbro employee, died yesterday after a lengthy illness at Rhode Island Hospital in Providence.

The husband of Maria (Moitoso) Silva, he was born in Fayal, Azores. He was the son of the late Jose C. and Maria L. (DeJesus) DeSilveira, of Fayal.

Silva lived in Bristol for 21 years. He was employed with the Hasbro Company of Pawtucket for 14 years before retiring in 1973.

A communicant of St. Elizabeth's Church in Bristol, Silva is survived by his wife and by two daughters, Mrs. Antonette Goulart and Mrs. Beatrice Costa, both of Cumberland R.I.

He also leaves four sons, Alvin Silva, Constantino DaSilva and Joseph Silva of Bristol, and Manuel Silva of Cumberland.

He is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. Constancia Brum of Repon, Cal., and Mrs. Louisa Moitoso of Bristol, R.I. and two brothers, Jose Rosa of Santa Rosa Cal., and John Rose of Rodeo, Cal., and 11 grandchildren.