

JESSE SILVIA

FALL RIVER — Jesse Silvia, 76, of 113 Cory St., died Monday in Charlton Hospital, Truesdale Site. He was the husband of the late Mary (Alves) Silvia.

He had worked as a loom fixer for the former Border City Manufacturing Co., and then for the Bridgewater Nail Co., until his retirement 14 years ago.

Born in Capelas, St. Michael, Azores, he was a son of the late Manuel M. and Francisca (Correia) Silvia. Hé had resided in Fall River for 60 years and was a member of St. Michael's Parish and the Portuguese Alliance Benefit Association.

Survivors include a son, John of Castle Hayne, N.C.; a daughter, Mrs. Lorraine Pedro of Fall River; a brother, Joseph Silvia of Middletown, R.I.; two sisters, Mrs. Mary Mello of Dighton, Mrs. Amelia Peters of Portsmouth, R.I.; eight grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

79 10/20/82