

MARY SIMAS

Mary C. (Cabral) Simas, 89, of 165 Hart St., and wife of the late Charles P. Simas, died Wednesday morning at Morton Hospital following a long illness.

Born in Valley Falls, Rhode Island, she was the daughter of the late Joseph and Mary (Sylvia) Cabral. She had been a resident of Taunton for the past 87 years and a housewife most of her life.

She was a communicant of St. Mary's Church and a member of the Women's Club, Taunton Garden Club, Old Colony Historical Society, The Queen's Daughter's, St. Mary's Women's Guild and the Coimbra Club.

She is survived by one sister, Mrs. Helena C. Sylvia of Taunton; one brother, Emmanuel Cabral of Inverness, Fla., and several nieces and nephews.

12/6/34 TGT