

4/2/84 TG
CHRISTINA L. SOUSA

Christina Lee Sousa, 10 months old, of 1265 Burt St., died at her home Monday morning after a long illness.

Born in Taunton May 8, 1983, she was the daughter of Michael R. and Sandra L. (Teixeira) Sousa.

Besides her parents, she leaves one brother, Michael R. Sousa II of Taunton; two sisters, Jennifer Lee Sousa and Theresa Lee Sousa, all of Taunton; paternal grandparents, John E. and Doris Sousa Jr. of Taunton; maternal grandparents, James M. and Judith K. Teixeira of Taunton.

HILDA VINCENT

Mrs. Hilda (Travers) Vincent of 11 Winter Ave., whose sons Joseph and Richard have been active in local politics, died Saturday at Morton Hospital, following a long illness. Widow of Joseph E. Vincent, she was 80.

She was a homemaker for most of her life, but was later employed at the Ad-a-Day Company for several years.

She was a communicant of St. Anthony's Church and a member of its Holy Rosary Sodality as well as of the Silver City Senior Citizens and the Lucky Senior Citizens.

Daughter of the late John and Christine (Raposa) Travers, she was born in Cambridge and resided in Taunton 60 years.

She leaves two sons, both of Taunton: Joseph T. Vincent, a former city councilman and Taunton School Committee member, and Richard T. Vincent, a former member of the Bristol-Plymouth Regional School Committee; a daughter, Mrs. Marie V. Costa of Old Saybrook, Conn.; a brother, John Travers of Taunton.

Also, three sisters, Mrs.

Mae Crovello of Fall River, Mrs. Olive Stephenson of North Abington, and Mrs. Pat (Irene) Leone of Sandwich; 10 grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; and several nephews and nieces.

MAUDE F. JACINTO

Maude F. Jacinto, 95, of 22 Fruit St., widow of Joseph H. Jacinto and mother of a former city councilman, died this morning at the Country Haven Nursing Home after a long illness.

A native of Taunton, daughter of the late Phillip and Mary Ellen (Hilan) Farley Jacinto, she was educated in Taunton schools and was a member of the Silver City Senior Citizens. She attended St. Anthony's Church.

Her survivors include two sons, Joseph J. Jacinto of Taunton, a former city councilman, and Francis H. Jacinto of Boca Raton, Fla.; a sister, Mrs. May Gotham of Taunton; and two great-grandchildren.