

Souza, mishap victim, dies

BOSTON — Daniel E. Souza, 20, of 1290 Middleboro Ave., East Taunton, died Tuesday afternoon at Massachusetts General Hospital from injuries he sustained after he was struck by an automobile on March 26 in Taunton.

Born in Brockton, he was a son of Clifford H. and Sally (Hollihan) Souza. He lived in East Taunton all of his life and attended Taunton schools.

A member of the Raynham Baptist Church, he had established his own auto body repair business one week before his death.

Beside his parents, he is survived by three brothers, Clifford Jr., Timothy and Thomas Souza, all of East Taunton. He also leaves two sisters, Marjorie and Lois Souza, both of East Taunton and several aunts and uncles.

Souza was transported to Massachusetts General Hospital after he was taken to Morton following the accident on Short Street.

As a result of internal injuries he suffered in the accident, he used over 150 pints of blood. Just this past Friday, a special blood bank was held for him at the Thayer Medical Building on Washington Street.
