

RAYMOND SWASEY

Raymond E. Swasey, 84, of 258 Main St., Dighton, died this morning at Morton Hospital following a short illness. He was husband of the late Phyllis (Leslie) Swasey.

Born in Dighton, he was the son of the late Joseph and Henrietta (Heddy) Swasey. He spent about 20 years of his early life in Dighton before moving to Wilbraham. He returned to Dighton where he lived with his nephew for the past eight years.

Swasey was a retired machinist having worked for 43 years with Westinghouse Electric. He was a member of the Dighton Bowling League.

He is survived by several nieces and nephews.

12/30/53 T.G.