

BENJAMIN C. TRAVERS

Benjamin Coyle Travers 3d, 23, of 197 Hart St., who was found dead in a car Tuesday morning at the Hartshorn baseball field on Longmeadow Road, was a lifelong resident of Taunton.

Medical Examiner Dr.
William H. Bennet Jr. listed the cause of death as carbon monoxide poisoning.

Born and educated in Taunton, Travers was a son of Betty B. (Bagwell) Travers and of the late Benjamin Coyle Travers Jr.

He was formerly employed by Newton Foods Inc. of Taunton and the Zayre Corp. of Mansfield.

In addition to his mother,
he is survived by a sister, Patricia Anne Travers of Taunton; a brother, Robert E. Travers of Taunton; his paternal grandparents, Benjamin C. and Edith Travers of East Taunton; his maternal grandfather, Oliver Freeman Bagwell of Americus, Ga; and several aunts, uncles and cousins.

4/13/83 TU