Gustavo Travers, Wareham

A Mass for Gustavo "Gus" Travers, 75, of Wareham, formerly of Cambridge, will be offered today at 9 in St. Anthony's Church, Cambridge. He died Friday while vacationing in Florida.

Born in the Azores, Portugal, he came to this country as a boy. He attended Cambridge schools and attended Brandeis University.

He was founder and owner of Courthouse Seafoods in Cambridge for many years until his retirement in 1976.

His love for music since his youth carried on throughout his entire life. He was a member of the Mattapoisett Symphonic Regional Band, vice president of the Wareham American Association of Retired Persons, the Elks, Eagles and Lusitania Recreation Club.

He leaves his wife, Jean (Cardello); a son, Robert; a daughter, Norma Hardy, and a brother, Thomas.

Arrangements were made by the Rogers Funeral Home, 380 Cambridge St., Cambridge.
