HENRY J. TEIXEIRA

Henry J. Teixeira of 139 High St., an affirmative action officer for CETA who formerly worked as an automobile salesman, died suddenly in Sturdy Memorial Hospital, Attleboro, early Sunday morning. He was 59.

Before taking the CETA job and for most of his life, Teixeira worked as a salesman for several local and Brockton-area auto dealers.

He was also a private airplane pilot who flew out of Taunton Municipal Airport.

A native of East Providence, R.I., he was a son of the late Carlos D. and Maria (Grace) Teixeira.

Survivors include a son, David Teixeira, of Partenkirchen, West Germany; two daughters, Donna Marie Teixeira of Taunton and Mary Ellen Teixeira of Attleboro; a brother, John Teixeira of Yacaipa, Cal.; a sister, Frances Ennis of Buenvista, Cal.; and several nieces and nephews.
