

Gertrude A. Teixeira 9/22/81
State police barracks cook

Gertrude A. Teixeira

FAIRHAVEN — Gertrude A. (Francis) Teixeira, 75, of 18 Elizabeth St. died yesterday after a brief illness. She was the widow of Manuel T. Teixeira.

She died at Nichols House Nursing Home.

She was born in New Bedford and was a lifelong Greater New Bedford resident. She was a communicant of St. Joseph Church and was a cook at state police barracks in Dartmouth, Fairhaven and Wareham for 26 years before her retirement.

Mrs. Teixeira was a member of St. Mary's Senior Citizens, the Ladies Benevolent Society, the Smith Mills Grange and the American Association of Retired Persons.

Survivors include a brother, Gerald A. Francis of Carver, and two sisters, Mildred Brown of Rumford, R.I., and Mary Benoit of Warwick, R.I.

Arrangements are by the Fairhaven Funeral Home, 117 Main St.