

Madeline Coulombe

NEW BEDFORD — Madeline (Gagnon) Coulombe, 69, of Query Street died Monday after a brief illness. She was the wife of George Coulombe.

She died at Massachusetts General Hospital, Boston.

She was born in Richmond, Canada, and lived most of her life in New Bedford. She was a communicant of St. Joseph Church. She was employed by New Bedford Rayon Co. for 38 years and retired four years ago from Debson Mills, now T. Weave, as a winder-tender.

Mrs. Coulombe was past president and welfare chairman of the Happy Group, and past chief and chaplain of May Nichols Circle 1569. She was a member of St. Joseph, St. Anthony

Michael Yerid

28 Sept 1982

NEW BEDFORD — Michael Yerid, 73, of 74 Spruce St. died today at home after a long illness. He was the husband of Annie (Joseph) Yerid and the son of the late George and Lottie (Moses) Yerid.

He was born in Franklin, N.H., and lived in New Bedford most of his life. He was a communicant of Our Lady of Purgatory Church and was employed by Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co. for 20 years, retiring in 1975.

Survivors include his widow; a son, Donald M. of South Dartmouth; three brothers, George of New Bedford and Herbert and Fred of East Providence R.I.; a sister, Lydia Dias of East Providence; and two grandchildren.

Arrangements are by the Saunders Funeral Home, 495 Park St.